

CODE OF CONDUCT

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

SCP Health is dedicated to maintaining a culture of compliance. Our reputation, built on ethical behavior, honesty and integrity is one of our greatest assets. Our commitment to safeguard this asset is supported by a continuously improving and effective Compliance Program.

The Code of Conduct has been approved by our Board of Directors and is the foundation that will ensure each of us is compliant with the laws and regulations pertaining to our daily work. The Code of Conduct will help us to make the right choices. I urge you to read carefully through this document and ask questions if you have any questions.

Each employee, clinician, and agent of our Company is responsible for maintaining our corporate integrity and upholding our good name. We expect all employees, clinicians, and agents of the Company to comply with the principles and guidelines laid out in the Code of Conduct and all policies and procedures implemented through our Compliance Program.

Considering the rapid changes in healthcare today, it is increasingly important that we focus on compliance to ensure we can continue to provide the best care possible to our patients. With the continued commitment of our employees, clinicians, and agents, I am confident our purpose and reputation will remain strong as we continue to serve millions of patients in the future.

Thank you for the work that you do every day!

Rich D'Amaro
Chief Executive Officer

WELCOME STATEMENTS

Meet your Compliance Leadership

Sarah Crass, Esq.
General Counsel & Chief
Compliance Officer

SCP Health is a committed advocate of compliance in all aspects of the Company. Whether it be protecting the privacy of our patients or safeguarding the proprietary and financial information of the Company, or any one of a number of processes or data that we all touch every day in our work, a commitment to compliance exists. We all work hard and work together to overcome the obstacles that confront us day-to-day. We all also must strive and constantly endeavor to do the right thing. Therefore, keep doing what you are doing and take pride in your work and our Company!

Bradley Kohrt,
Senior Vice President,
Compliance & Internal Audit

SCP Health's core values: agility, collaboration, courage, and respect set the foundation for our commitment to compliance while carrying out our strategic objectives. We strive for continuous improvement and value-added services to patients, clinicians, and facilities through our compliance program as well as the establishment of an Internal Audit (IA) function, Enterprise Risk Management (ERM), Sarbanes-Oxley (SOX) program and an Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) initiative. Independent of management, these programs provide reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of objectives relating to operations, reporting, and compliance. It includes objectives such as operational efficiency, safeguarding assets, and financial statement reliability. Leadership is fully vested in these programs to mitigate risk and improve our internal control environment. Our internal control environment is only as good as the company culture set forth through our values that each of you exhibit every day!

Aimee Bertrand,
MBA, CHC, RHIA
Vice President Compliance

We are in a time of increased governmental scrutiny and ever-changing regulation. SCP Health is committed to ensuring that our organization maintains a culture of compliance. Through our Compliance Program, we strive to ensure that our employees and clinicians are confident that they are doing the right thing. We support them in detecting non-compliant issues and immediately correcting any issues identified. In order to be successful and live our core values, we recognize that an effective Compliance Program is imperative.

Kathy Boone, RHIA
Privacy Officer &
Compliance Manager

At SCP Health, a patient's privacy and confidentiality remains top of mind throughout our various company touch points. We are made up of a vast team of hard-working individuals that realize the high level of importance placed on our patients, along with the ever-changing electronic technology. There is a solid cornerstone of respect for patient privacy and confidentiality that is weaved into the Company's day-to-day operations. From our workforce onboarding process to annual HIPAA training to helpful privacy and security tips, our workforce stands tall against major healthcare companies. User access, auditing and timely reporting of privacy incidents supports the sense of priority, which contributes to the strength of our privacy program. Along with a sense of priority is a commitment to being accountable for handling our patient and Company information with the utmost confidentiality.

PURPOSE & CORE VALUES

OUR PURPOSE:

- We provide clinical leadership and all the requisite tools so that our clinicians can focus on the needs of patients.
- We help hospitals adapt, grow, and excel clinically so that they can better serve both patients and their communities.
- In doing so, we set out to make a positive difference across the entire continuum of care.

OUR CORE VALUES:

AGILITY

We adapt behaviors, strategies, technologies, and models to respond proactively to the evolving health care environment.

COLLABORATION

We align clinical and operational teams empowering them to work together as one interconnected team to provide cost-effective, high-quality care.

COURAGE

We act to make a difference, to revitalize health care by empowering clinicians and health care organizations to do and say what needs to be done to deliver exceptional patient outcomes.

RESPECT

We treat everyone with courtesy and professionalism throughout the continuum of care, from patients to clinicians and the operational experts that support them.

WHY HAVE A CODE OF CONDUCT?

This Code of Conduct (the “Code”) has been adopted by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Onex TSG/HPP Holding Corp, and is applicable to Onex TSG/HPP Holdings Corp. and all of its wholly owned subsidiaries and controlled affiliates (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Company”) and all Board members, directors, officers, employees, contracted healthcare clinicians, volunteers, interns and agents (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Team Members”) of the Company regardless of location. This Code is designed to provide guidance to all Team Members in carrying out our commitment to legal and ethical behavior.

This Code is a critical part of our overall Corporate Compliance Program (“Compliance Program”). The Compliance Program, originally adopted by the Board of Directors in 1997, outlines what we do as an organization to comply with legal and ethical requirements. We are committed to compliance with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations. This commitment permeates all levels of the organization. Our Compliance Program was created to ensure that we conduct our business with integrity and in accordance with all applicable federal and state laws, as well as our Company policies. Our Compliance Program is designed to reduce the risk of misconduct and to provide a safe environment for raising compliance concerns and questions. The Chief Compliance Officer oversees the Compliance Program and ensures compliance with our Code. Anyone who does not comply with our Code may be disciplined up to and including termination.

This Code guides Team Members in carrying out our daily work and relationships with patients, independent contractors, third-party payers, subcontractors, vendors, consultants, and each other within appropriate ethical and legal standards. It is intended to be comprehensive, easily understood, and serve as an important reference source. This Code is an integral part of how we achieve our purpose and core values.

This Code, and/or policies and procedures may be revised, amended, or supplemented. A copy of all revisions, amendments or supplements shall be made available to all Team Members. This Code and policies and procedures are always available to Team Members on the Employee and Provider Portals and the Company website.

As a multi-state business, we are subject to the laws and business requirements of the states in which we operate. Wherever you may be located, you are responsible for conducting business activities in compliance with this Code and the laws of the state in which you work and live. When you believe a conflict exists or may exist between this Code and the laws of a particular state, you should bring that potential conflict to the attention of the Compliance Department.

DECISION MAKING

Our Code of Conduct is designed to help you make ethical business decisions. It is not, however, designed to address every issue. You may face a situation where the right course of action is unclear. Asking the following questions will help you maintain the mission and values of Company:

- Is it consistent with our purpose and core values?
- Is it illegal?
- Is it unethical?
- Could it harm patients?
- Could it harm fellow Team Members?
- Could it harm government programs?
- Could it harm our financial health?
- Would our organization be compromised or embarrassed if it became public knowledge?
- Is it unfair or inappropriate?
- Could it adversely impact our organization if everyone did it?
- Is it consistent with our policies or our Code of Conduct?

If the answer to any of the above questions is “yes”, then do not do it. If you are still unsure what decision to make or what action to take, talk to your supervisor or contact the Chief Compliance Officer or Compliance Department. It is critical that our Compliance Program is effectively communicated throughout all levels of the organization.

Compliance is the responsibility of each Team Member. The Compliance Department encourages you to provide constructive input regarding its Compliance Program and our Code of Conduct. If you have comments, suggestions, or questions, please submit them to the Compliance Department.

REPORT CONCERNS & ASK QUESTIONS

Every Team Member has a responsibility to report the possible violation of this Code, any Company policy, or any legal or regulatory non-compliance. Leadership will ensure that all Team Members are appropriately trained on the laws that affect their work and all Company policies and procedures.

Everyone is responsible for ensuring compliance! To assist you with this responsibility, leadership shall ensure that Team Members have an open line of communication for reporting concerns or asking questions. You can report compliance concerns in one of the following ways:

You can speak with your immediate supervisor. We encourage you to first contact your immediate supervisor, who is in turn responsible for informing the Chief Compliance Officer and/or the Compliance Department of any compliance concerns raised.

You can report directly to the Chief Compliance Officer or Compliance Department.
If you prefer not to discuss a concern with your supervisor, you may instead contact the Chief Compliance Officer and/or the Compliance Department directly and confidentially at:

compliance_officer@scp-health.com or

Sarah Crass, Esq., General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer, 337-609-1147 or sarah_crass@scphealth.com

Bradley Kohrt, SVP Compliance & Internal Audit, 337-609-1499 or bradley_kohrt@scphealth.com

Aimee Bertrand, VP Compliance, 337-609-1404 or aimee_bertrand@scphealth.com

You can call our Confidential Compliance Hotline or report via a secure website. Call the 24 hour Confidential and Anonymous Hotline at: 1-877-778-5463 or log on to our website at: scphealth.com/hotline.

Company shall always strive to maintain the confidentiality of a complainant's identity, regardless of the methods used to report suspected non-compliance. However, the complainant's identity may have to be revealed in certain circumstances, such as scenarios involving government or law enforcement authorities. The findings of a compliance investigation are confidential to protect all involved in the investigation process. As a result, details and specific findings of a compliance investigation will be shared only on a need-to-know basis. The Chief Compliance Officer ensures that all credible reports will be thoroughly and fairly investigated, and that appropriate action will be taken.

If you have a sincere belief that a violation may have occurred and make a report using any of the procedures provided in this Code, you will not be subject to retaliation. No adverse action will be taken against anyone for making a good faith report or for cooperating with a compliance investigation in good faith. The non-retaliation policy ensures that no one is penalized for reporting what is honestly believed to be a compliance problem or for honestly participating in a compliance investigation. Forms of retaliation may include being fired, demoted, suspended, reprimanded, harassed, or in any way discriminated against for reporting a suspected violation. Policy Reference: CCP-009 Non-Retaliation

Although reported concerns may not always be correct, purposely falsifying or misrepresenting a report or making false statements during an investigation will not be protected under the Non-Retaliation Policy. False accusations or statements made in a report or during an investigation, including those made with the intent of harming or retaliating against another person, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Although we have a policy that prohibits retaliation for reporting or cooperating in good faith, it is important to understand that no policy can protect you from applicable consequences if you have broken the law or violated our policies. Breaking the law or violating our Code of Conduct or our policies may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination, as well as possible federal and state actions and penalties.

Reported violations will be dealt with fairly, promptly, and consistently in a manner that takes into consideration the seriousness of the violation and the conduct of individuals involved. Self-reporting is encouraged and will be considered when addressing the violation.

HOW WE DO BUSINESS

We value our employees and clinicians and strive to provide a comfortable and safe work environment. To ensure that this goal is achieved, Company has adopted policies with respect to employment matters, employee rights, and benefits. Any violations of such policies should be directed to Human Resources. Access to personal information about employees is restricted to people with a “need to know” within Company and will be transmitted to other employees or third parties only for legitimate business need or as required by law.

The Company is committed to providing equal opportunity in all our employment programs and decisions. Company does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, age, disability or handicap, sex, gender, gender identity or expression (including transgender status), sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws.

Team Members are committed to creating a culture of teamwork, collaboration, and optimism. Relationships with patients and coworkers are established with functional trust and respect regardless of job title or level of education. Team Members engage each other with a spirit of optimism and a positive attitude. We work collaboratively to solve problems and give and receive feedback graciously and with an open mind.

IDENTIFYING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST:

It is our policy that no employee should place himself or herself in a position where their action, personal interest, or the activity or interest of those for whom they act are, or are likely to be, in conflict with the interests of the Company. The purpose of this policy is to assist the Company and employees in avoiding situations where personal activities and financial affairs may conflict with their responsibility to act in the best interests of the Company. There is no intent to invade individual privacy, but rather to identify possible problems or areas of concern that could be resolved if revealed.

Some examples of a conflict of interest include:

- Having an interest in or financial relationship with a vendor with which the Company does or proposes to do business with or a competitor of Company;
- An employee using their position within Company to obtain personal benefits or profit;
- Accepting gifts, payment or free services from vendors who seek to do business with the Company, and/or;
- Conducting investment activity using confidential information obtained while working at the Company.

Employees (both clinical and non-clinical) are expected to disclose any potential conflicts of interest at the time of onboarding and throughout employment. Discussing any potential conflicts of interest with the Compliance Department in advance of entering into an arrangement is best practice. Policy Reference: CCP-018-Conflict of Interest

Contracted clinicians, not employed with Company, shall report any potential conflicts of interest at the time of contracting and as they may present during the term of their contract with affiliated entities.

PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN THE WORKPLACE:

Consensual, romantic relationships between employees in managerial or supervisory positions and subordinate supervisors or employees, or between co-workers, may pose various risks and concerns for the Company. Such relationships may lead to complications that are detrimental to employees as well as the Company. Moreover, certain relationships may cause problems with morale, supervision, or security. Personal Relationships must be immediately disclosed to the Human Resources and Compliance Departments. Policy Reference: HR Policy Manual – Limitations on Employment

GIFTS AND BUSINESS COURTESIES:

It is our policy that Team Members will maintain high ethical standards regarding the offering and acceptance of business gifts. Offering or accepting personal gifts may influence our decisions or the decisions of others and may constitute a conflict of interest. The appropriateness of offering or accepting gifts depends on the specific circumstances of the gift and who is offering and receiving it. Each Team Member needs to be sure that even permitted business gifts do not damage our reputation for integrity. Please refer to Company’s policy on gifts to ensure that your actions comply with our policies. An effort should also be made to ensure that any gift we extend meets the business conduct standards of the recipient’s organization. If you are unsure, please contact the Compliance Department before offering, soliciting, giving, or receiving such items. Policy Reference: CCP-017 Anti-Bribery and Gifts Policy

POLITICAL AND CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES:

Company encourages participation in charity and community events; however, Team Members should be clear that they are acting or speaking on their own behalf and not on behalf of the Company when engaging in political and charitable activities, unless they are authorized by the Company to act on its behalf. Team Members may use their own funds to make direct political contributions to a candidate, office holder, or political organization. Team Members may not solicit contributions from other Team Members for personal political purposes on Company time or ask other Team Members to perform activities to support personal political activities. Donations of Company funds or assets and the use of the Company name or logo is not permitted unless you have proper written authorization. Policy Reference: CCP-014 Corporate Donation and Sponsorship Policy

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION:

Company employs and contracts with people of all backgrounds and cultures. We are an equal opportunity employer, and we ensure individuals have the same opportunities for employment and promotion based on their ability, qualifications, and suitability for the job. We aim to create a safe, respectful, and inclusive place of work so our people can contribute to living our core values.

Employees and clinicians are expected to:

- Behave in a way that does not offend, intimidate, degrade, insult, or humiliate others. This includes jokes, banter, ridicule, or taunts.
- Understand and act upon the fact that what may be acceptable to one person may not be to another.
- Communicate respectfully. Avoid slang or expressions that might not translate across cultures or be deliberate in explaining them to share our diverse cultures and languages.
- Challenge poor practice in others, helping to promote good practice and create change (e.g., don't ignore inappropriate banter, jokes, etc.)

Leadership is expected to:

- Ensure that there is no discrimination towards or against employees of diverse attributes in relation to the recruitment, remuneration and promotion of all employees.
- Exhibit strong leadership, taking personal responsibility for progressing equality, diversity and inclusion and achieving results.
- Invest in the physical, mental, and emotional well-being of our employees and clinicians through ongoing education around inclusion and diversity initiatives.

ANTI-HARASSMENT/ANTI-DISCRIMINATION:

Company strives to provide a productive work environment in which all Team Members can contribute at their highest levels. Accordingly, we prohibit harassment and discrimination of any kind, whether the harasser or victim is a supervisor, co-worker, supplier, customer, agent, or guest of Company.

Sexual harassment is defined as any unwelcome or unwanted advances, requests for sexual favors, verbal, visual or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- Submission to or rejection of this conduct by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting hiring, evaluation, retention, promotion, or other aspects of employment; or
- This conduct reasonably could be expected to and does interfere with any individual's employment or creates an intimidating or hostile work environment.

Sexual harassment is a violation of law and applies not only to each of us in our work environment but also to all locations where we present ourselves. A Team Member who feels that he or she has been subject to harassment should immediately report the matter to their supervisor or to Human Resources or should call the Confidential Compliance Hotline.

Company pledges that every Team Member will be treated with dignity and respect and will be judged based on his or her qualifications to perform a job, without regard to race, creed, gender, religion, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status. Discrimination in any form is a violation of law.

Company has adopted certain other policies and procedures with respect to other human resource issues and our Team Member benefits. These additional policies are set forth in the Human Resources Manual provided to each Team Member upon commencement of their relationship with Company.

Please contact the Human Resources Department with any questions regarding these policies or benefits. Policy Reference: See Human Resources Manual

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE:

Company has a zero tolerance for threats or acts of violence in the workplace. Workplace violence includes physical assaults, actions, or statements that give us reasonable cause to believe that our personal safety or the safety of others may be at risk. Team Members who engage in physically abusive and/or violent behavior (even those in jest) shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including removal from Company, termination of employment or contract, and/or referral to appropriate law enforcement agencies. If you believe a certain behavior is physically threatening or intimidating, you should immediately report to your supervisor or, in cases involving behavior of your supervisor, the next-level supervisor or the Human Resources Department.

In cases of imminent danger of bodily harm, call 911 immediately. Contact the Human Resources Department or the Compliance Hotline after reporting to the police. Reported events will be investigated and, if warranted, appropriate support will be provided to the victim(s). Company will track these reports and evaluate trends to develop and implement precautionary measures.

Policy Reference: See Human Resources Manual

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY:

In our continuing commitment to an environment of good health, we have designated various Company offices as smoke free. Smoking is not permitted anywhere inside Company buildings (“Hubs”) or within defined geographical areas outside the buildings, as set forth in our Smoking Policy, of the Human Resources Manual.

It is our policy to provide a safe and drug-free work environment for our Team Members. The use of illegal drugs and abuse of controlled substances in the workplace is prohibited. As a condition of employment or affiliation with Company, any involvement in the unlawful use, sale, manufacture, distribution or possession of controlled substances, illicit drugs and/or unauthorized use of alcohol in the workplace or working under the influence of such substances is prohibited. We encourage Team Members with alcohol or drug dependencies to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation. Team Members who experience problems with alcohol or other drugs may contact Human Resources for confidential assistance or referral to appropriate resources, including Company’s Employee Assistance Program (EAP) provider, as set forth in the Drug-Free Workplace Act Policy, of the Human Resources Manual.

As part of our overall commitment to maintain a safe environment for our Team Members and others, we strive to keep our facilities physically secure. We are issued security badges that must be worn at all times. It is your responsibility to keep your badge in your possession and not let any other person borrow it. If it is lost or stolen, notify your manager, the Human Resources Department and/or the Compliance Department immediately. In addition, be aware of your surroundings and report any suspicious person or activity to your manager, the Human Resources Department and/or the Compliance Department.

We have a safety program to reduce the risk of injury to Team Members and visitors and to assure compliance with applicable federal, state, and local codes and regulations, as applied to the building we inhabit and services we provide. It includes making sure that our department leaders have appropriate information and training to develop safe working conditions and safe work practices within their area of expertise; using knowledge or safety principles to educate staff, design appropriate work environments, purchase appropriate equipment and supplies and monitor the implementation of the processes and polices; and regularly evaluating the environment for work practices and hazards to respond to identified risks, hazards and regulatory compliance issues. If you have any questions about specific policies that apply to your job or tasks, please speak with your immediate supervisor.

PROTECTION OF COMPANY RESOURCES & ASSETS

Our assets and resources are to be used for accomplishing our legitimate business purposes only and not for the personal interest of an individual Team Member. Team Members are prohibited from the unauthorized use, destruction, or theft of our equipment, supplies, materials, or services. As a rule, the personal use of any Company asset without prior supervisory approval is prohibited. The occasional use of items where the cost to Company is insignificant is permissible. One's supervisor must approve any Company assets used for community or charitable purposes in advance. Any use of Company resources for personal financial gain unrelated to the Company's business is prohibited.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES:

Team Members are expected to advance the Company's legitimate business interests when the opportunity to do so arises. Team Members may not:

- Take for themselves (or direct to a third party to) a business opportunity that is discovered through the use of the Company's property, information, or position or indeed any other opportunity which it reasonably believes may be of interest to Company,
- Use the Company's property, information or position for personal gain or compete with the Company.

Team Members owe a duty to Company to advance its legitimate interests whenever the opportunity to do so arises.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY & RESOURCES:

Company has made significant investments in information technology systems used to manage the data in its business operations. We utilize software and hardware systems designed to protect the Company's electronic records from access by unauthorized individuals or entities, malicious destruction, and to protect the integrity and confidentiality of data during transmission. Policies and procedures are in place to ensure routine maintenance and upgrading of these systems. Users should be aware that certain electronic systems are monitored for inappropriate use and that not all systems provide confidential transmission of information. If confidential electronic transmission is required, users should contact our Information Technology Department to determine the proper method of transmission.

Our Chief Information Security Officer oversees the management, implementation, and monitoring of our information systems. Use of Company owned and provided computer resources, telephone services, or supplies for other than for business use is not permitted. Any equipment issued must be returned upon request or upon leaving the Company. Our Team Members use software program for word processing, spreadsheets, data management and many other applications. Software products purchased by us are covered by some form of licensing agreement that describes terms, conditions and allowed uses. It is our policy to respect copyright laws and observe the terms and conditions of any license agreements. You are expected to abide by all copyright regulations and user license requirements, failure to do so may result in discipline, including termination of your employment by and/or association with the Company, and civil and criminal penalties. Again, if you have questions regarding compliance with copyright laws or license agreements, please contact the Compliance Department. Policy Reference: See Information Security Policies posted on the Information Security and Provider Portals

SOCIAL MEDIA:

The Company respects the right of any employee to maintain a blog or website or to participate in social networking on or through websites or services such as Twitter, Facebook, or similar sites/services (collectively "social media").

However, to protect the Company's interests and ensure employees focus on their job duties, employees must adhere to the following rules:

- All rules regarding confidential and proprietary business information apply in full to social media. Any information that cannot be disclosed through a conversation, a note or an email also cannot be disclosed through social media.
- When using social media, if an employee mentions the Company and also expresses either a political opinion or an opinion regarding the Company's actions and also identifies himself/herself as a Team Member of the Company (or if it can be inferred that he/she is a Team Member of the Company), the poster must specifically state that the opinion expressed is his/her personal opinion and not the Company's position. This is necessary to preserve the Company's goodwill in the marketplace.

- Be respectful of potential readers and colleagues. Please do not use discriminatory comments or make maliciously false statements engage in libel or slander when commenting about the Company, superiors, co-workers, or our competitors.
- Employees may not use the Company's logos or trademarks for commercial purposes or to endorse any product or service.
- Any conduct which is impermissible under the law if expressed in any other form or forum is impermissible if expressed through social media. For example, posted material that is discriminatory, obscene, defamatory, libelous, or threatening is forbidden.
- Employees may not post any Confidential Information of the Company or Protected Health Information.
- Company reserves the right to monitor social media activities and will request to remove impermissible content.

ACCURACY OF RECORDS AND DOCUMENT RETENTION:

Team Members are responsible for the integrity and accuracy of the records produced in the course of performing your work for the Company. Accurate records and the integrity of our data support the business decisions and actions taken by the Company.

We are committed to maintaining our business records in accordance with federal and state law. Such records are to be retained, stored, and destroyed in compliance with our records retention and destruction policies. Business records include all documents and data created internally or externally on behalf of Company, whether in paper or electronic format. It is a violation of policy to alter, falsify, or tamper with Company records. Policy Reference: CCP-026 Record Retention

CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION:

Confidential information about our Company's strategy and operations is a valuable asset. Although you may use confidential business information as necessary to perform your job, it must not be shared with others outside the organization or internally with those who do not need to know about the information to perform their jobs. Confidential and proprietary business information covers anything related to our business or operation that is not publicly known, such as personnel files, wage and salary information, financial information, billing and pricing information, strategic plans, projected earnings, information related to investigations, disciplinary actions, information related to acquisitions or joint ventures, and policies and procedures. Company's methods of operation, databases, and financial condition are considered proprietary and confidential business information.

Even when you are no longer a Team Member, you are still bound to maintain the confidentiality of information viewed, received, or used during the course of your relationship with the organization. Copies of electronic files of any confidential or proprietary information in your possession when you leave the organization must be returned at the end of your relationship with the Company.

If you are in doubt about whether information you are being asked to share is confidential or proprietary, or if you know it is confidential and proprietary but are not sure about whether the request is legitimate, contact your supervisor or the Compliance Department. Releases of this type of information shall take place only with the consent of Executive Leadership, pursuant to a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement, or if otherwise required by law, such as to comply with a court order.

MEDIA INQUIRIES:

It is important for Team Members to know that they are not authorized to speak to the media on behalf of the Company. All media inquiries should be referred directly to Marketing: 337-609-2577 or emailed to: Marcomm@scphealth.com.

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION PURSUANT TO AN INVESTIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING:

We promptly and appropriately respond to requests for information pursuant to a government investigation, requests for information, or legal proceedings. These requests may come in the form of a subpoena, summons, warrant, letter, or verbal request. Only the CEO, General Counsel/ Chief Compliance Officer, or someone who is otherwise authorized by one of the foregoing, are authorized to accept these documents on behalf of Company.

Accepting or acting on these requests may expose Company, and sometimes you as an individual, to significant fines or other types of criminal, civil, or administrative penalties. If you are asked to accept a legal document or to share information of any kind for any reason, immediately consult with your supervisor and/or the Compliance Department. Policy Reference: CCP-008 Government Requests Investigations

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS/REGULATIONS

Company seeks to promote an environment of compliance with all applicable legal requirements and to assure that the standards set forth in Company policies and procedures are maintained. Company takes great care to ensure that billing to the government payors, commercial insurance payors, and patients is accurate and conforms to all applicable federal and state laws, regulations, and applicable payor rules and guidance. We have implemented policies, procedures, internal controls, and system edits to ensure that coding, billing, and financial reports are handled with integrity and accurately reflect the services provided by Team Members on behalf of the Company.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Every Team Member, upon engagement, is required to participate in general compliance education and to confirm that he or she:

- Has completed this education;
- Has read and understands the Code of Conduct, has access to the Code, and Company's Compliance Policies and Procedures; and
- Understands that compliance with this Code, Compliance Policies and Procedures and the law, is required at all times that he or she is a Team Member.

Existing Team Members are required to complete annual compliance training.

- Team Members with job functions in areas identified as highly regulated, or at a higher risk for intentional or inadvertent wrongdoing, will receive more intensive education and training (e.g., coding, billing, and medical documentation).
- Team Members will also receive on-going training as determined by the Chief Compliance Officer, with assistance from the Compliance Department and/or Compliance Committee.
- Team Members may also receive additional, specific compliance training which focuses on the specific policies and procedures relevant to the services provided by the Team Member.

Timely completion of training is required and part of Team Members' annual performance evaluation to the extent that they are employed. All compliance training will be tracked, and non-completion is reported to leadership, as necessary, by the Compliance Department. Policy Reference: CCP-101 Education and Training

FALSE CLAIMS AND DEFICIT REDUCTION ACTS:

Company has implemented policies, procedures, and systems to facilitate accurate billing and coding of services provided by Team Members on behalf of Company.

We prohibit any Team Member from knowingly presenting, or causing to be presented, claims for payment or approval, which are false, fictitious, or fraudulent. We are committed to timely, complete, and accurate coding and billing, including the following principles:

- We bill only for services that are actually provided, documented, and ordered by a physician or other appropriately licensed individual who is a Team Member;
 - We assign billing codes that we believe, in good faith, accurately represent the services that we provided and that are supported by documentation in the medical record according to regulatory requirements and guidelines;
 - We implement good faith controls to prevent unbundling, coding errors, duplicate billing for the same service, and other government-published billing errors. Any improper coding as any error in coding (up or down) is not correct;
 - We do not charge government payors in excess of our usual charges;
 - We respond to billing and coding inquiries and timely resolve inaccuracies in previously submitted claims that are discovered and confirmed;
 - We make every effort to ensure that Team Members who perform billing or coding services have the necessary skills, quality assurance processes and appropriate procedures to ensure that billings are accurate and complete; and
 - We expect any subcontractors engaged to perform billing or coding services to have their own ethics and compliance program and agree to abide by our Code of Conduct.
- The Federal and State False Claims Acts and the Deficit Reduction Act protect government programs such as Medicare, Medicaid, and Tricare from fraud and abuse. It is a violation of the False Claims Act to knowingly submit, or cause another person or entity to submit, false claims for payment of government funds.

It is illegal to submit claims for payment to government programs that we know or should know are false or fraudulent. No specific intent to defraud the government is required for a claim to qualify as a false claim. The False Claims Act defines “knowing” to include not only actual knowledge, but also instances of deliberate ignorance or reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of a claim. Policy Reference: CCP-105 Fraud and Abuse

WHISTLEBLOWER PROVISIONS - The False Claims Act allows people with evidence of fraud against the government to sue on behalf of the United States Government in order to recover the stolen funds. In some cases, the Government may join the whistleblower suit. If a whistleblower suit is ultimately successful, the person who initially brought the suit may be awarded a percentage of the recovered funds.

The False Claims Act also contains a provision that protects the whistleblower from retaliation by his or her employer. This provision applies to any employee who is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or discriminated against as a result of the employee’s lawful acts in a whistle blower suit. It is our policy to extend Team Members all protections required by the False Claims Act.

In addition to the Federal False Claims Act, a number of states also have False Claims Acts with similar penalties that work to discourage fraud perpetrated against state governments. The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 offered states the opportunity to retain 10% of any amount recovered through false claims if they enacted their own False Claims Act requirement that were comparable to the federal statute.

We are committed to submitting claims that are accurate and truthful. If you know of a false claim, contact your supervisor immediately, who is responsible for notifying the Compliance Department. You can also report concerns directly to the Chief Compliance Officer, the Compliance Department or call the Confidential Compliance Hotline 1-877-778-5463 or via our website at Reportit.net. Failure to notify your supervisor, the Chief Compliance Officer or the Compliance Department of compliance violations may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Policy Reference: CCP-016 Whistleblower

TEAM MEMBER SCREENING:

We do not contract or employ individuals or bill for services rendered by an individual or entity that are excluded or ineligible to participate in federal healthcare programs; suspended or debarred from federal government contracts; or not reinstated in a federal healthcare program after a period of exclusion, suspension, debarment, or ineligibility.

It is also our policy to prevent Company from delegating discretionary authority to an individual or entity that may have a propensity to engage in illegal activities. We conduct an initial screening prior to start date and monthly re-screenings of all Team Members against established governmental databases of such excluded and ineligible persons, per OIG exclusion guidance. Our policies address the procedures for timely and thorough review of such lists and appropriate enforcement actions. Each prospective Team Member is required to sign a release/authorization with respect to this policy.

Additionally, as a Team Member you are required to immediately report to Company if you become excluded, debarred, or ineligible to participate in federal healthcare program; or if any proceedings are instituted against you that may result in sanction by or exclusion from a government sponsored healthcare program. Policy Reference: CCP-012 Screening for Excluded Individuals/Entities

PROFESSIONAL LICENSING:

Company will not employ or contract with individuals that do not hold mandated professional credentials. Individuals retained by Company that require professional licensure, certifications or other credentials are responsible for continuing to maintain those licenses, certifications, or credentials, in accordance with applicable federal or state regulations. Company may periodically require evidence of the status of such credentials or licenses.

We encourage our Team Members to pursue professional certifications.

How We Do Business

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS:

The financial and tax accounting systems of the Company are maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to annual independent audit. Our system of internal controls is designed to provide assurance that all financial transactions are properly and timely accounted for and recorded.

Team Members involved in creating, processing, or recording financial information are expected to take responsibility for its integrity.

Team Members may not be involved in the submission of false invoices or expense reports, the forging or alteration of checks or misdirection of payments, the unauthorized handling or reporting of transactions, the creation or manipulation of financial information so as to artificially inflate or depress financial results, or any improper or fraudulent interference with or coercion, manipulation or misleading of the auditors or the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

To identify financial and fraud risk, the Company has a Sarbanes-Oxley (SOX) program. The SOX program utilizes a top-down, risk-based approach based on the COSO 2013 framework. SOX program deliverables and Steering Committee are designed to support the annual SCP CEO and CFO certification:

- State the responsibility of Management for establishing and maintaining an adequate internal control structure and procedures for financial reporting; and
- Contain an assessment, as of the end of the most recent fiscal year of the issuer, of the effectiveness of the internal control structure and procedures of the issuer for financial reporting.
 - Also, note that financial reporting includes all aspects of Financial Reporting including income statement, balance sheet, cash flows and footnotes and disclosures.

To support this annual certification, the SOX process and control owners are responsible for remediating control deficiencies in a timely manner in accordance with an agreed upon plan and date.

STARK/PHYSICIAN SELF-REFERRAL LAW:

Team Members shall be required to abide by the Federal Physician Self-Referral Law, commonly referred to as the “Stark Law”. In general, the Stark Law prohibits contracted healthcare providers from making referrals for certain designated health services payable by Medicare to entities with which the healthcare providers themselves or their immediate family members have a financial relationship, unless an exception applies. A financial relationship can take the form of a direct or indirect ownership either interest or compensation arrangement. Violations of the Stark Law can result in repayment of all claims made by improper referrals, Federal False Claims Act actions and penalties, and exclusion from the Federal health care programs.

If you have any questions about a Stark Law exception or other Stark Law concerns, please contact the Compliance Department.

ANTI-KICKBACK STATUTE:

The Federal Anti-Kickback Statute prohibits persons from knowingly and willfully soliciting, receiving, offering or paying any remuneration, directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, in cash or in kind, in return for or to induce referring an individual for the furnishing of, purchase, leasing, ordering, or arranging for, any item or service paid for in whole or in part under a state or federal health care program. There are many similar state laws. Violation of the Anti-Kickback Statute is punishable by criminal penalties, which can include jail time, exclusion from participating in federal healthcare programs and/or fines.

It is our policy not to offer or solicit anything of value to or from someone for referral of patients, nor to accept or offer kickbacks for any service or product. We provide education on the relevant proscriptions and prohibited activities that may result in a violation of these laws.

Strict adherence by Team Members to the letter and spirit of the Stark Law, Anti-Kickback Statute, and Medicare/Medicaid regulations is required. No one should assume that the Company’s interest ever requires any other course of conduct. In addition to disciplinary action, including employment and/or contract termination by Company, civil and/or criminal penalties may be imposed for non-compliance.

If you have any questions or concerns about compliance with these laws, please contact the Compliance Department.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL TREATMENT AND ACTIVE LABOR ACT (EMTALA):

Team Members who provide services in hospitals are required to abide by the Emergency Medical Treatment & Active Labor Act (“EMTALA”). Providers and non-clinical Team Members are assigned mandatory EMTALA training when they onboard, then annually thereafter. Educational information is also provided regarding such regulations and any changes thereto.

It is our policy that, where applicable, Team Members who are healthcare providers located in hospitals shall provide an appropriate medical screening examination for all individuals and necessary stabilization for any patient in labor or with an emergency medical condition, without regard for an individual’s ability to pay. Patients requiring transfer to another facility shall be transferred in strict compliance with State and Federal EMTALA requirements. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in fines being imposed on both the healthcare provider and the hospital. Policy Reference: CCP-004 EMTALA

HEALTH INSURANCE PORTABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT (HIPAA):

Patients and their families trust us with highly personal and sensitive information regarding their medical conditions. We collect patient information, including medical conditions, history, medical and family illnesses, in order to provide quality care. Team Members are not permitted to access patient information internally or use or disclose patient information outside the organization, except as necessary to perform our jobs, serve the patient, or required by law. We are committed to complying with state and federal privacy laws and to assisting patients with exercising their patient privacy rights.

We have adopted policies and procedures, which reflect the requirements of the Health Information Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended (“HIPAA”). We have also adopted policies and procedures, which reflect the requirement of protecting electronic health information as required by the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (“HITECH”).

Under our Notice of Privacy Practices, patients can expect their privacy will be protected. No Team Member has a right to any patient information other than that necessary to perform his or her job. Our policies focus on protecting individual’s health care information that is accessed, used, or disclosed in providing healthcare treatment and fulfilling billing requirements and health care operations of the health care provider. Although Company is not engaged in activities that define it as a Covered Entity, under HIPAA, Company may have direct and indirect subsidiaries or affiliates that perform functions that fit the definition of a Covered Entity.

Company, its subsidiaries or its affiliates, may be designated as an “Affiliated Covered Entity”, which permits the affiliated legally separate organizations to comply with one set of policies and procedures, appoint one Privacy Officer, administer common training programs, use one Business Associate Agreement, provide one Notice of Privacy Practices, etc. Those Companies classified as an Affiliated Covered Entity may share Protected Health Information (“PHI”) among other entities classified as Affiliated Covered Entities for the performance of health care obligations. Any legally separate entity of Company that is not classified as an “Affiliated Covered Entity” may not receive or utilize PHI without patient authorization, unless otherwise allowed by law.

Our Compliance Department monitors electronic patient records to determine who is accessing the record and whether the access is consistent with job functions. Company privacy and security policies require:

- We access, use, and disclose only the minimum amount of patient information necessary to perform our jobs;
- We do not discuss patient information with others who do not have a job-related need to know, including co-workers, colleagues, family and friends;
- We do not share our user IDs or passwords to our electronic systems and log-off when we step away from our computers; Note: what is done under your ID/password is your responsibility;
- We assess our surroundings when speaking with or about patient health information to ensure privacy;
- We verify written patient information to ensure that we do not mix one patient’s information with another patient’s information, that fax or phone numbers and email addresses are accurate and entered correctly before sending;
- We dispose of written patient information in confidential disposal bins, and we contact IT for proper disposal of electronic patient information;
- We encrypt all emails that contain PHI, and we do not put PHI in the subject line;
- We timely report all privacy concerns or potential privacy policy violations immediately to our Privacy Officer within the Compliance Department.

We are committed to ensuring the confidential and secure treatment of PHI maintained in both paper and electronic media. We have implemented policies and procedures to: limit uses and disclosures of patient information; ensure that no PHI is disclosed unless permitted under HIPAA; enter into business associate agreements with those entities with which we share PHI; limit access to PHI to those individuals that need the information to perform their job; verify the identity of persons seeking PHI; and address patient's rights with respect to their own health information.

The laws apply both to Company and to you as an individual, even after you no longer are a Team Member. Patient privacy laws include serious consequences for failing to protect patient privacy. Additionally, violating our privacy and security policies can lead to disciplinary actions, up to and including termination, financial penalties, and reputational impact. Any questions regarding proper handling of PHI should be addressed to the Privacy Officer. Policy Reference: See HIPAA Privacy Policies posted on Compliance and Provider Portals

DO THE RIGHT THING

SCP Health has a strong culture which is reflected in our Purpose, Core Values and in this Code of Conduct. We are equally committed to assuring our actions are consistent with our words. We expect all Team Members to reflect the high standards set forth in this Code of Conduct and in our Policies and Procedures. We ask you to assist in supporting our values that are critical to ensuring that Together We Heal.
